

TEXAS RESEARCH RAMBLERS

Presents

SEMINAR 2001 OUR 7TH ANNUAL GENEALOGICAL SEMINAR

on

February 17, 2001

at

Sam Rayburn Middle School

(exit Hwy 6 Bypass at Hwy 158 follow access road north)

Bryan, Texas

featuring

Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck

Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck, M.S.,M.S., F.N.G.S., is currently supervisor of the genealogy of the Dallas Public Library and writes a weekly column called "Family Tree" for the Dallas Morning News. He has been a faculty member of Samford University's Institute of Genealogy U Historical Research since 1974 and formerly served as an instructor in genealogy at S.M.U. Mr. Bockstruck is a widely read author and highly sought after lecturer.

8:00 Registration ... coffee ... renew old friendships... make new friendscheck out the vendors

9:00 Welcome and Announcements

9:15: Identifying the Maiden Names of Females

10:30 Drawing for Door Prizes and check out the vendors

11:00 Finding Substitutes for Birth & Death Records

12:15 Drawing for Door Prizes

12:30 Lunch ... exchange ideas... renew friendships ... make new friends...check out vendors

1:15 Researching: Pennsylvania

2:30 Break and Drawing for Door Prizes

2:45 Researching: The Plains: Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma & Texas

3:30: Questions and Answers

4:00 Adjourn

Do come prepared to add some excellent books & research helps to your library.

REGISTRATION FORM FOR RESEARCH RAMBLERS 2001 SEMINAR

Registration: Mail to: $30.00 per person prior to 9 February 2001 (includes lunch)

$35.00 per person after 9 February 2001

Checks payable to: Research Ramblers Sue Foy, 604 Vine St., Bryan, TX 77802-4349

No refunds for cancellations received after 12 February 2001

Number attending _____ @ _____ Total enclosed _____

NAME(S): _____

ADDRESS: _____

SURNAMES: (List 4 with area & time)
