

J. W. Woodward Died Sunday

Denton County, Texas, October 9, 1927

J. W. Woodward, age 84, died at his home Sunday morning at one o'clock from injuries sustained when he fell in his room two weeks prior to his death.

Funeral services were held at the Woodward residence at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. C. Nance, assisted by Rev. N. B. Baker, interment was made in the Jackson Cemetery. Pallbearers were J. O. McClister Sr., C. R. Fowler, T. M. Lindley, R. L. Baskins, W. W. McClister and A. F. Lindley.

Woodward is survived by his wife who before their marriage here in 1896 was Mrs. Emma Mounts, five children, Mrs. H. B. Bartee of Krum, E. L. Woodward of Santa Anna, A. C. Woodward of Lorenzo, W. W. Woodward of Erlanger, Kentucky, and J. C. Woodward of San Antonio, 16 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters, J. K. Woodward of Madill, Okla. C. P. Woodward of Pampa, Miss Laura Woodward of Covington, Ky., and Miss Emma Woodward of Toledo, Ohio. All of his children were here at his bedside with the exception of one son, W. W. Woodward of Erlanger, Ky.

Woodward was born in Platte County, Mo., Feb. 18, 1843. He attended school in Boone County, Ky. and served during the Civil War in Braggs division of the Confederate Army, receiving his discharge at the end of the war. In 1881 he came to Texas from Kentucky and moved to Denton County in 1898. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Out-of-town relatives and friends who here were C. P. Woodward and Lee Woodward of Pampa, J. K. Woodward of Madell, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Taylor and children, R. H. Rhine and family, C. R. and J. H. Taylor and families of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. John Mounts and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Proffer of Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jahn of Fort Worth.

Back to Obituaries page

Back to Holland-Woodward Genealogy